Fifth Sunday of Easter

May 14, 2017

When we travel or go somewhere new there is a level of trust that we place in the directions. I know I have trusted in GPS applications that have taken me all around the world to get to places quite close and then wondered why I trusted! More so when we place ourselves and our lives in the hands of doctors, we have to trust in their ability, their experience and their reputation. Jesus asks us to trust completely in him. Thomas and Phillip ask the questions that I would always ask if I was hesitant about a destination. We are not sure where you are going so how can we follow? You talk about your Father but I have never met him? Jesus asks us to trust in him!

It is the talk about my fathers house and the familiarity and comfort of that human experience of home; with the hospitality that is promised, that makes this gospel so comforting at funerals. We will have our own room prepared and a guide to bring us there, we will not be alone on this journey. Jesus wants us to hunger too for this home, for his fathers house. He wants us to share in the intimate relationship of home, his home. Jesus captures that longing for those first relationships that are etched in our heart. It brings to light the ease and comfort Jesus has in talking about the relationship of his Father. His Father is also Our Father through our intimate relationship with Jesus. Jesus asks us to believe in the relationship..I am in the Father and the Father is in me. They are that connected, he can speak for the Father. ...and about his Fathers house where he has rooms prepared for you. There is that expectation that you will one day be there sharing in the intimate relationship of being one with them.

Parish Dinner

"O what a night! It was early May back in 2017...." so the old song should go! We would like to thank the Parish Dinner committee for such thorough preparation for a wonderful evening of good food and drink, marvellous unique entertainment and dance. It was seamless preparation that appeared effortless but we are aware of how much effort you put in. Thankyou.

Happy Mother's Day!!!

Mothering God, we pray for the women who spread your mothering across the world: for young mothers, coming to terms with new responsibility; for others who are tired, stressed and depressed; for mothers who struggle to balance work and family; for mothers whose children have physical, mental and emotional disabilities; for mothers who raise children on their own; for mothers who mourn the loss of children no longer part of their lives; for women whose desire to be a mother has nor been fulfilled. We pray this prayer through Jesus, who understands the demands and the love that accompanies everyday mothering. Amen
